

Acknowledgement

The authors wish to first of all acknowledge the publisher, SAMT Co., for its embarkation, support, and permission in publishing in humanities. We know that without its assistance this publication, inter alia, could have not been possible. Within SAMT, we specially appreciate the encouragement and cooperation of the head of ESP department, and Mrs. Keshvari and Mrs. Ghabdian who painstakingly pursued the final compilation of the work.

We are particularly indebted to proof-readers who, although anonymous to us, read it in manuscript form and made corrective suggestions in the book.

Our special appreciations are sent to the cooperation of library staff in these academic setting: Shahid Bahonar University of Kerman, Kerman University of Medical Sciences, and Zarand College of Nursing.

Finally, we shall always be grateful to those teachers and readers who make suggestion to ameliorate the work in its future editions.
